

Call for Proposals 2011

Southeastern Regional Association of Teacher Educators (SRATE)

58TH Annual Conference

Hosted by the Georgia Association of Teacher Educators (GATE)

Desoto Hilton Hotel
15 East Liberty Street
Savannah, GA 31401

October 27-29, 2011

Research and Teaching: Realities, Innovations, and the Myth of “Waiting for Superman”

Proposal Submission Deadline:

June 30, 2011

SRATE and GATE invite you to submit a proposal focusing on the SRATE 2011 conference theme:

Research and Teaching: Realities, Innovations, and the Myth of “Waiting for Superman”

Thematic Strands:

- Inclusive Education
- Policy and Reform
- Teacher Preparation and Technology
- Collaboration and Partnerships
- Professionalism, Ethics, and Dispositions
- Effective Teaching and Effective Schools
- Assessment and Accreditation
- Global and International Education

A. Information Form: (Please access the Information Form or the website at <http://www.srate.org> or <http://www.gaate.org>)

1. Presentation Title: Provide a session title as it should appear in the program.
2. Lead Presenter: List name, title, institution, mailing address, home and office phone number, fax number, and e-mail.
3. Co-Presenters: List name, title, institution, mailing address, home and office phone number, fax number, and e-mail.

B. Proposal Format: (Select one)

Thematic Paper/Research Sessions:

Sessions will be organized across the conference by thematic strand(s) for 50 minutes per individual session.

Roundtable Sessions:

Sessions will be organized consistent with thematic strands. They will provide opportunities for participants to share methods, programs of interest to teacher educators through posters, technology assisted presentations, pictures, brochures, or other artifacts that promote discussion and interactions among conference participants. (30 minutes per individual presentation).

C. Subject Descriptors: Identify the conference thematic strand for the presentation. Include three, one or two word descriptors for the subject index.

D. Abstract of Presentation: Write a clear, concise and thorough abstract.

E. Conference Strand(s) Connection: Describe how the proposed presentation relates to the appropriate thematic strand(s).

F. Summary for Conference Program: Write 50 words or less that will appear in the conference program: Describe the content of the session to aid attendees in selecting topics relevant to their interests. Proposals which do not include this summary or go beyond the fifty word limit will not be considered. Summary may be edited by the Program Committee prior to the conference.

G. Audience Participation: Briefly explain how you will involve the audience.

H. Technology needs: Must be furnished by the presenters or arranged with the hotel directly.

The lead presenter will be notified of acceptance or rejection by September 1, 2011. It is the responsibility of the lead presenter to forward all correspondence to his/her co-presenters. Only presenters pre-registered for the conference will be listed in the program.

Submit all proposal materials ELECTRONICALLY in a Word document to:

Dr. Ann D. Smith, Professor
Early Childhood Education
Reinhardt University
E-mail: ads@reinhardt.edu

Deadline for Submission 6/30/2011 (All submissions will be Peer reviewed) E-mail: ghmiddlebrooks@bellsouth.net